Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Charleston Awards Environmental Contract

CHARLESTON, S.C. — Concurrent Technologies Corporation of Johnstown, Pennsylvania is being awarded a $9,213,067 Indefinite Delivery, Indefinite Quantity Cost-Plus-Fixed-Fee type contract for environmental testing, training, and education support services to the United States Southern Command. Specific efforts include analytical, scientific, test and engineering expertise for evaluations, recommendations and developments regarding corrosion technology and testing, life-cycle environmental support, manufacturing technology support, training and education support, and information technology support. This contract includes two one-year options which, if exercised, would bring the estimated cumulative value of the contract to $26,805,311. The work will be performed in Tampa, Florida (70%); Charleston, S.C. (10%); Pensacola, Florida (10%); and other miscellaneous sites (Orlando, Jacksonville, Largo, Fla.; Norfolk) (10%) and is expected to be completed by September 2005 if all options are exercised. Contract funds in the amount of $50,000 (minimum guarantee) will expire at the end of the current fiscal year. The contract was competitively procured under full and open competition. The Request for Proposal was posted on the SPAWAR Systems Center E-Commerce website and one offer was received. The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Charleston is the contracting activity (N65236-02-D-3826).
